

To W. L. Garrison.

Weymouth. August 31. '74

My Dear Friend

Many thanks for your kind letter of yesterday just received. I greatly regret that you have been put to a supper. As you have these so many remedies in vain, perhaps it would be best to let them all alone & trust to time & quiet. There some times bring the best results.

We are all very anxious to see you & only regret that we must defer their pleasure till next week on account of the absence of Mr Dix & my sister Dora, who have promised visits to friends this week.

But I wish to arrange the earliest day for your visit conformable with their engagements.

It will give us great pleasure if you can dine with us Tuesday the 8th of September / a week from tomorrow / bringing Fanny with you, & if possible Miss Loren.

It would give us all great pleasure to meet the young ladies & we beg you to express this wish to her, & to say how delighted we should be to see her at Weymouth.

We would expect you by the noon Express Train that leave the Old Colony Station at half past 11. A carriage shall be waiting for you at our station here, & we will have a fire for you if the winter should change to cold.
I mention this because I know you very care for your sufferers shoes here.

May I also & tell me if Tuesday the 8th will suit you.
With love to Mr. Garrison,

Believe me,

Yr very affectionately

A. W. Weston.
